etc., due on a note of $400 which was given to her by defendant on November 7, 1899.

As the result of an extra heavy blast at the Alewa quarry on Saturday there is a dead mule on the garbage dumps and Luna Pulehu is looking for a job. Pulehu instructed his quarrymen to throw in an extra can or so of giant, and the blank killed the mule, a heavy rock striking the animal.

Prosecutor Brown this morning in the District Court moved on the calendar the criminal case of G. J. Morato vs. A. Liberda and the matter was set for Wednesday. This is the case in which Durao of the Portuguese paper is alleged to have accused Morato of sympathetic connections with the assassination in Portugal.

Frank Lilla begs to announce that he is no longer connected with the Union hack stand and will receive all orders hereafter from The Territorial Messenger Service Tel. 361 where he can be had at any hour day or night. Business has increased to such an extent as to warrant him putting on another auto.

Y. Ishii, the Japanese druggist who has taken part in the effort to secure the permission of the authorities to sending to Japan eleven Japanese papers on Molokai, has returned from a visit to the Settlement, and says that four of the eleven Japanese at Kalaupapa desire to stay there rather than return to their home in Japan.

Judge Dole, in discharging the Federal grand jury this morning in the United States District Court, complimented them "on the swift, prompt and efficient way that they had disposed of the cases before them. In the short time that you have been in session, you have done your work as loyal American citizens, and I want to thank you for the way you have overcome the obstacles which have been in your way."

A letter was read this morning before the Supreme Court from Alfred W. Carter, tendering his resignation as a trustee of the Bernice P. Bishop Estate, on the grounds that his other business prevented him from giving the attention to the affairs of the estate that he should. As the will calls for five trustees to be appointed by the

DIVORCES GRANTED.

Judge Lindsay's court this morning was the scene of a number of divorces, in each case the bonds of matrimony were severed.

Mary D. Prime was granted an absolute divorce from Thomas Prime on the grounds of non-support.

Carrie Hobson was granted an absolute divorce from Robert Hobson on the grounds of non-support.

J. G. M. Sheldon was granted an absolute divorce from Anala Sheldon on the grounds of desertion.

EDITORIAL SNAPSHOTS.

We must not let the President know that colleges act as a deterrent to marriage or he may abolish higher education.—Chicago Daily News.

The reason why the American battleship's flag, captured by the British, brought so high a price is that there are so very few of them in captivity.—Chicago Post.

Slavery in the Philippines? What of it? If we can reverse ourselves on a little matter like "taxation without representation," why should a trifle like involuntary servitude embarrass us?—Puck.
